Dear Friends of the Coast Recital Society,

We are delighted to announce next year's exceptional concert season: six subscription concerts plus one special event. As always, we are dedicated to bringing the finest classical concert artists to you - our devoted Sunshine Coast audience. In planning our concerts we look for the highest standard of performance, important and sometimes unusual repertoire, promising young musicians, as well as established, world-class artists.

Note: All concerts take place at 2:30 pm on Sunday except for Saturday, Dec 4.

RENEW YOUR CRS SUBSCRIPTIONS NOW!

Subscriptions to the CRS are a hot ticket item on the Coast and we have a significant waiting list. In order to confirm your subscription for next year, please bring your completed renewal forms and your cheque to the Osiris Trio - March 7, or Avan Yu - March 27 - concerts. Current subscribers have priority. However, any subscriptions not renewed by April 30th will be made available to the music lovers on our waiting list.

2010-2011 SEASON

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2010
ANTON KUERTI, PIANO & THE JACQUES THIBAUD TRIO

We open our season with an afternoon of sublime chamber music. Anton Kuerti, an extraordinary artist and true master at the keyboard, returns to the CRS with the marvelous Jacques Thibaud Trio. a young string ensemble noted for their charm, youthful exuberance and astounding virtuosity. The members of the Trio are Burkhard Maiss, violin, Philip Douvier, viola, and Bogdan Jianu, cello. www.thibaud-trio.de

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3, 2010 - ANGELA CHENG, PIANO

Gold medal winner of the 1986 Artur Rubenstein Piano Competition, Angela Cheng makes her long awaited return to the CRS. She last performed for us in 2004, and her incredibly busy schedule made it difficult to find time for a return-engagement. This wonderful artist is passionately involved with every work she performs. Known for her brilliant technique, tonal beauty and great musicianship, Angela Cheng is one of Canada's national treasures. www.pianistangelacheng.com

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2010

CHRISTIANNE STOTIJN, MEZZO-SOPRANO & JOSEPH BREINL, PIANO

A rising star in the vocal world and a protégée of the great Dutch conductor Bernard Haitinck, Christianne Stotijn won the Borletti Buitoni Award in 2005 and is a member of the prestigious BBC New Generation Artist Program. "Stotijn melts hearts" wrote one critic. At the keyboard will be Joseph Breinl who accompanies many of the finest singers in Europe. We're fortunate to be able to bring them to the CRS, as part of our collaboration with the Vancouver Recital Society (VRS). www.christiannestotijn.com

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2011 - AFIARA STRING QUARTET

This young all-Canadian quartet brings together four gifted musicians who are now Quartet in Residence at the Juilliard School in New York. In 2008, the Afiara Quartet won the important Concert Artists Guild International Competition in New York, following a top prize at the Munich ARD International Music Competition. They are the only Canadian ensemble to win top honors in these major international competitions. The members of this fine quartet are Valerie Li, violin, Yuri Cho, violin, David Samuel, viola and Adrian Fung, cello. www.afiara.com

SUNDAY, MARCH 27, 2011 - RICHARD MARGISON, TENOR & KINZA TYRELL, PIANO

From the greatest opera stages of the world to the intimacy of the Raven's Cry Theatre, Victoria-born tenor Richard Margison is hailed for his ringing top notes and spine-tingling power. One of the most critically acclaimed singers on the international stage today, he performs regularly in the finest opera houses including the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala, the Canadian Opera Company and the Deutsche Oper Berlin. An Officer of the Order of Canada, Margison tours BC next year in a series of recitals with another Victoria native, the superb pianist Kinza Tyrell. SUNDAY, MAY 1, 2011 - YEVGENY SUDBIN

We rarely present a concert in May, and we rarely invite a musician back for a third engagement within a relatively brief period of time. But when we heard that Yevgeny Sudbin wanted to return to the CRS, how could we refuse? Since his first recital for us in November, 2006, Sudbin continues to garner the highest praise from critics around the globe and has been hailed as "one of the greatest pianists of the 21st century". Sudbin's recital will surely be a memorable conclusion to our 2010-2011 concert season. (Collaboration with the VRS.) www.yevgenysudbin.com

SPECIAL EVENT: SUNDAY NOVEMBER 14, 2010
THE NATIONAL BROADCAST ORCHESTRA OF CANADA
ALAIN TRUDEL, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR & PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR

Canada's beloved 70-year-old CBC Radio Orchestra was disbanded in 2008. It rises from the ashes in its new incarnation, The National Broadcast Orchestra of Canada. Conductor Alain Trudel is on the podium for this CRS Special Event. With his magnetic personality and superb conducting skills, Trudel has established an international reputation leading orchestras and ensembles on three continents in a wide variety of standard and contemporary repertory. He recently conducted in St. Petersburg, Ottawa and Montreal. Trudel will conduct a program of music by Beethoven, Haydn, Serge Arcuri and Cam Wilson. The soloist for this CRS event will be announced soon. For a video preview of the orchestra, go to: <http://nboc.ca/?cat=19>
